Officer Reports

From the President...

Greetings Corvette Club of Iowa Family,

March is here and for those of you reading this from somewhere in Iowa you know it has been warming up, wait... sorry... it's snowing again, wait... it's warm again!

Let me start off by checking in on all of you that have been impacted by the storm the other day. As a National Weather Service Trained Storm Spotter with a degree in Meteorology (just for my own knowledge, not for work), I was very aware of the storms and saw the tornado and damage first hand as I was out providing reports for the NWS. I hope and pray that all of you are healthy, with limited damage to your homes/cars. Please reach out to myself or any of your family here in the Corvette Club of Iowa if you need anything.

I LOVE this time of year. The projects I have thought about all winter are almost ready for me to begin. Landscaping work on the house, building projects and then the fun of getting Monica (my Corvette) ready for the year of cruises, autocross and car shows. That is something my wife doesn't understand. "Honey, why don't you pay someone to detail and wax the car?" There is nothing wrong with that.

However, my wife just doesn't understand that I absolutely love to wax and detail my cars. It's a form of therapy for me. I get to put the hard work in to make the car look as nice as possible and then admire the results. Not too often in life do we really get to see the fruits of our labor instantly. My dad taught me everything about taking care of my cars; from learning how to rebuild the motor, to general maintenance, to keeping it clean and protected. As a teenager I would weekly wash and wax my car. It may have been an '86 Oldsmobile Calais with over 100k on the odometer but it looked like it just came off the showroom. I've grown over the years in my process and knowledge of how to best detail my cars. I won't go into details here but it is a lengthy 8 step process.

Monica also gets special treatment from my family. My 12 yr. old step daughter is notorious for dragging her softball bag along the side of my wife's Traverse. But she knows to never touch the paint on the Vette. Even my 2 yr. old knows the rules are different around the Vette.

What are your processes with your cars? What rules do you have? Chances are you have different rules and different processes than with your other cars/possessions. As true spring begins (Meteorological Spring was on March 1st, but the weather says otherwise), what are you looking most forward to? How do you begin to get ready for the car season? Things that are the most important to us are the things we devote the most time and attention to. Oprah said it best when she said, "How you spend your time defines who you are." This includes our families, or prized cars, our hobbies, etc. I look forward to when our club meetings start to explode with strong attendance again with the change of the seasons. This club for me is something I give time to, as many of you do, because it is important. It's great to share life with you wonderful folks. As you prepare your cars for the spring and summer (unless you are Wayne Weidmann whom I don't believe has ever stopped driving his C8 all year) don't forget to put some effort and time into CCI. Help us polish the club, volunteer as you are able, attend outings and events, reach out to fellow members and connect. This club will only be as important to you as you give time for it.

Please share some of your detailing tips with me when you see me at events/meetings. I love learning and might even be able to share some tips with you. Looking forward to connecting with you all more in the warmth.

Vroom Vroom,

Jeff Jackson, President

Governor's Message...

In this Governor's Message I will pass along information from the February Governors' Meeting in St. Louis and give you an idea as to how the 2022 competition season is coming along.

From the Governors' Meeting:

I presented a $1,000 check from CCI made out to St. Jude Children's Hospital to Michele Cantelmo, the NCCC Director of Charity. She will deliver it on to St. Jude, along with other clubs' donations. The NCCC contributed $13,635 to St. Jude last year.

The 2022 NCCC membership cards have been mailed out. You should have received yours by now if you renewed in a timely manner. Please review your card to ensure your information is printed correctly. If not, please contact your Regional Membership Director (Nan Brittain) or me. The interest in permanent West Region numbers is less this year than in years past. As a reminder, the $15 you spend to receive a permanent number goes straight into the WR Scholarship Fund to help West Region members and their children/grandchildren fund some of their higher education costs. If you haven't already, please consider sending in a permanent number request. You can find the application on the WR website at www.westregionnccc.org, then click on COMPETITION. You will see a list of available 2022 numbers as well as the permanent number request form. Fill it out and send it to Gary Brisbois, RCD.

As many of you know, the National Corvette Museum sustained some significant damage in the tornados that occurred in the area on December 11, 2021. The track is functional. HPDEs will resume this month. Touring laps, Corvette Experience, Andy Pilgrim schools and corporate events are being phased in as repairs to facilities and assets are completed. The tower, pavilion and garages need to be rebuilt. They are trying to include some upgrades in the rebuild. The museum itself escaped with minor damage and it is open to the public. The 2022 Michelin National Corvette Museum Bash will be held at the museum April 28-30. This is a fun weekend to see the museum and participate in a number of fun activities centered on the Corvette, America's Sports Car. It would also be a good opportunity to check out the tornado damage and see how the rebuild is going. For more information on the museum or the Bash, go to their website at www.corvettemuseum.org.

NCCC Scholarships were discussed. There is money available for these National scholarships again this year. If you have children or grandchildren who will be attending college next year, please consider applying for one of these awards. For applications or to find out more information, go to www.corvettesnccc.org and click on SCHOLARSHIPS. The deadline for applications is May 1. Remember too that the West Region of NCCC also has a scholarship program. The application process is much simpler and you can find more information and the application at www.westregionnccc.org. Diane Bowen from CRCC will chair the WR Scholarship Committee, again this year.

After some question as to if we would have a National Convention next year, NCCC has come forward to host the 2023 convention in Bowling Green, Kentucky. This convention is important in that it coincides with the 70th Anniversary of the Corvette. It will be held June 24-30, 2023. Some of the featured activities will include visits to the County Music Hall of Fame, a downtown Nashville tour, as well as the usual competition events. A real treat will feature drag races at the historic Beach Bend Raceway Park. This track has been around since 1950 and still has that "old school" feel to it. There is still time to register for the 2022 Convention, which will be June 11-18 in Atlantic City, New Jersey and it looks to be a lot of fun. Go to www.corvettesnccc.org and click on CONVENTIONS for more information. A proposal was also made for a 2024 Convention to be held in Joplin, Missouri. More information will come, but if it happens, that event is in the West Region, so WR clubs may be asked to help.

CCI's 2022 competition events are progressing:

Although we are yet to be officially approved by the Polk County Aviation Authority for the May 28-30 low-speed events at Ankeny Airport, we have submitted our application and expect to receive approval very soon. We have the sanctions and everything loaded into the online registration app. and the flyer has been sent to the RCD. The dates of our second autocross of the year will be June 25-26. We don't have a location for that event yet but are still searching, so if you know of a large parking lot that might work for an event, please let Denny Luther or me know. Finally, the date of our rallye (Lawman's Pokey Run) will be September 18th. It will take place on public roadways in Central Iowa and will finish at an area restaurant. We'll have more information on this event in the coming months.

That will do it for my report this month. I'll see you at the CCI General Meeting on March 15th.

Gary Foster, Governor

Discussion was made about adjustments to this year. A $500 amount was reserved for late-year contribution if something arises. If nothing arises it will automatically go to a chosen charity.
